

Further reading on implementing the International Code

International Baby Food Action Network www.ibfan.org

Sponsorship and conflicts of interest

Guidance on participation in events sponsored fully or partially by companies with commercial interest in infant and young child feeding

Text of International Code and subsequent resolutions

Lots more too

Baby Milk Action www.babymilkaction.org/is a non-profit organisation which aims to save lives and to end the avoidable suffering caused by inappropriate infant feeding. Baby Milk Action works within a global network (IBFAN) to strengthen independent, transparent and effective controls on the marketing of the baby feeding industry.

At present there is no Irish group linked to IBFAN

Food Safety Authority of Ireland: Marketing of Infant Formula leaflet

http://www.fsai.ie/publications/leaflets/Infant_formula_leaflet.pdf

Irish legislation on the marketing of formula, and cereal based foods for infants

<http://www.irishstatutebook.ie/home.html>

Also consult the Code of Practice and Ethical Guidelines of your professional organisation